The Boston Flower & Garden Show

March 15, 2014

“Romance in the Garden”

“Romance in the Garden” is the inspiration for the “sumptuous gardens, eye-popping displays and stimulating programing” planned for the 2014 horticultural extravaganza

According to Carolyn Weston, show director—“Whether found in the fairytale elegance of a royal garden or the sleek site of a modern meet up, scenes of love and passion (for both people and plants) will bloom in the show’s landscapes and floral designs.”

Lectures and demos will explore perfect pairings: from the birds and the bees, to wine and cheese, to the latest varieties and products to combine in your yard or garden

Bronx Treasures

June 7, 2014

The Bronx still surprises even native New Yorkers—most notably known for its world famous baseball team. It also has beaches, a New England fishing village, a globally recognized zoo, a botanical garden and countless historic sites.

Tour Highlights

RT motorcoach transportation

New York Botanical Gardens

Founded in 1891, the New York Botanical Garden boasts one of the world's greatest collections of plants. Fifty gardens, 50-acres of native forest, and a Victorian-style glasshouse can all be explored when you visit the 250-acre Botanical Garden.

Don't miss the Shop in the Garden—if someone you know has a green thumb, it's a great stop... and if you just like beautiful gifts, this is the place

The Cloister's

The Cloister's is the medieval outpost of the metropolitan Museum of Art. Overlooking the Hudson River, it is a deeply relaxing and beautiful place. Dedicated to the art and architecture of medieval Europe, it was assembled from architectural elements that date from the 12th-15th century. We have a special one-hour guided tour scheduled with a Museum lecturer. "The Highlights Tour: An Introduction to the Met's Collection" is a wonderful way to enhance your Museum Experience

Visit Arthur Avenue

Come Taste a Little Bit of Italy in the Bronx!

Generations of Italian families have given this area a special small-town character unique for an urban setting. Stop by the Arthur Avenue Retail market—a covered Italian bazaar that brings together all the shopping also found in nearby streets, from sausage makers to break bakers, café's to florists. It is a magnificent dining experience—where else can you find fine Italian cuisine within a short walk through the neighborhood. And the best thing about Arthur Avenue is that you don't have to be Italian to enjoy it!

Lobster Bake in Gloucester & Rockport on Cape Ann

June 14, 2014

Salty sea air, fishing villages, coastal estates and harbors—visit Gloucester on Cape Ann. Gloucester is the oldest seaport in the nation and one of the world's leading fishing ports. Marvel at the spectacular seascapes and feast on a traditional Lobster Bake at the Gloucester House.

INCLUDED FEATURES

RT luxury motorcoach transportation

Lobster Bake at the Gloucester House

The famous Gloucester House is world renowned for its lobster dishes and fresh seafood—which is locally caught in the North Atlantic and prepared to perfection.

This season, the Gloucester House invites you to join in a delightful dining experience on historic Seven Seas Wharf—experience the true taste of New England.

Menu

1-lobster & ½ chicken or steak, chowder, corn, potato, lemonade

Fisherman's Statue

Over the years, Gloucester lost so many of its sons to the ravages of the sea that the town thought it fitting to set up a memorial to them. The Gloucester Fisherman (also known as "The Man at the Wheel") is one of New England's most famous statues, with the legend

"They That Go Down to the Sea in Ships, 1623-1923"

Leisure time in Rockport at Bearskin Neck

Bearskin Neck is a small neck of land that just out of the town center into Rockport Harbor. Here you will find quaint little studios, shops and restaurants that line its narrow roads. Here you are likely to see an artist at his easel as a lobsterman hauling his traps. Tiny studios surround a famous old red fish house known as Motif #1—said to be the most photographed building in the country.

New York City

“on your own”

July 27

Even if you have never been to New York City before, you will recognize sights, monuments and buildings all around you. The city is constantly photographed and filmed for the rest of the world to see and hear. Now, it is your turn for a firsthand encounter with the Statue of Liberty, Broadway or the Empire State Building. They are even better in person—we promise!

But look a little closer and you will see a side of New York that perhaps you didn't expect. So much of what makes visiting here extraordinary lies in the intimate details. Go behind the scenes on Broadway or delve into the history of a particular neighborhood on a walking tour.

With a style that is unquestionably its own, New York City is where the world heads to shop. Beyond the limelight of trendy boutiques are lots of unexpected treasures—a first edition book at a used bookstore, a beautiful olive-wood bowl in a design gallery or a one-of-a-kind handmade necklace. You can search for your own hidden treasure.

Dining in the Big Apple is not just about food. It is a social affair, a cultural experience and often a visit to an artfully designed space. Food and design go hand in hand and presentation counts for so much in a city known for fashion, design, architecture and art. Yet, amid all the sophistication, you will also find plenty of low-key places serving the perfect cheeseburger, dumplings and Cuban sandwiches.

West Point Experience w/ Lunch at Thayer Hotel and the Purple Heart Hall Of Fame

Take an exciting guided tour of the United States Military Academy at West Point.

Informative and fun, there is no better way to experience the sweep of America's history than with a tour of West Point. Historic figures such as George Washington, Robert E. Lee, U.S. Grant, Douglas MacArthur, Dwight Eisenhower and even Benedict Arnold all have walked these grounds and contributed to West Point's story. Along with the history and stories you will enjoy the breathtaking vistas of the Hudson Highlands, one of the most scenic spots in the Northeast.

Followed by lunch at Thayer Hotel:

Enjoy an elegant meal in the elegant Thayer Hotel. This landmark building overlooks the Hudson River on the grounds of West Point. The Thayer Hotel is synonymous with West Point and its history as it has hosted Presidents, generals and many other dignitaries when they have visited West Point.

After Lunch Visit The Purple Heart Hall of Fame:

The national Purple Heart Hall of Honor preserves the compelling stories of their sacrifice. Listen to the veterans' stories in their own words in the hall's theaters and browse through the electronic Roll of Honor, featuring the names of Purple Heart recipients. Visit the exhibition galleries for a first hand experience that cannot be conveyed in history books.

RT Statue Cruises to

Statue of Liberty

Lady Liberty Enlightening the World

See Lady Liberty in New York Harbor—located on 12-acre Liberty Island, the Statue of Liberty was a gift of international friendship from the people of France—and is one of the most universal symbols of political freedom and democracy. The Statue was extensively restored for her spectacular centennial on July 4, 1986.

Ellis Island (no re-open date set)

The Ellis Island Immigration Museum is one of the country's most popular historic sites. The Museum tells the moving tales of the 12 million immigrants who entered America through the golden door of Ellis Island. Today, the descendants of those immigrants account for almost half of the American people.

Visit The 9/11 Memorial

The 9/11 Memorial honors the lives of those who were lost on this tragic day. Occupying eight of the 16 acres at the World Trade Center, the Memorial will be a tribute to the past and a place of hope for the future. The names of every person who died in the terrorist attacks of February 16, 1993 and September 11, 2001 are inscribed in bronze around the twin memorial pools.

New York City

"on your own"—at Christmas

December 6, 2014

Even with the cold wind blowing (& sometimes even snow falling) New York City is transformed into a winter wonderland from the Christmas Tree at Rockefeller Center to the Christmas window displays at Macy's and Saks Fifth Avenue, there are endless Christmas sights to enjoy during the holiday season in New York City.

Even if you have never been to New York City before, you will recognize sights, monuments and buildings all around you. The city is constantly photographed and filmed for the rest of the world to see and hear. Now, it is your turn for a firsthand encounter with the Statue of Liberty, Broadway or the Empire State Building. They are even better in person—we promise!
